BOTTOM PRICES.

4th.—BUYING FOR CASH, AND HAVING UNEQUALED FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING, ENABLES US TO MAINTAIN PRICES LOWER THAN THOSE OF ANY OTHER HOUSE FOR THE SAME QUALITY OF GOODS.

LASTLY, THIS CATALOGUE CONTAINS STATISTICS OF FREEMASONRY IN NORTH AMERICA—THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS IN EACH STATE OR GRAND JURISDICTION; WITH THE DATES OF THEIR ORGANIZATION AND TIME OF MEETING—A LARGE AMOUNT OF VALUABLE INFORMATION IN A SMALL SPACE.

A Few Words about Shabby Regalia.

"More ancient than the Golden Fleece or Roman Eagle; more honorable," etc. This cannot be applied to the linen or cotton apron, and other cheap and shabby regalia, nor can such substitutes ever look becoming or proper in the lodge room or in a procession.

An organization that claims to be, and is, the grandest and most ancient Order under the Sun, is watched not only by its friends, but by the skeptical and prejudiced, and when its members parade in public, they are judged principally by their appearance—their regalia or uniforms; and when such a procession is seen wearing cheap and shabby regalia, it is likely to challenge adverse criticism, not only on that particular procession, but on the Order to which it belongs; for the public very naturally concludes, that where so little pride and interest is shown there is but little to be proud of or interested in. So in the lodge room where proper regalia is not used, a sense of their shabby appearance always mars the enjoyment of the members, especially if they have for visitors, members of more ambitious lodges. In striking contrast with this are the lodges where emulation reigns, where, by a small additional expense, a fine appearance is made, both in the lodge room and in public procession—challenging the admiration of spectators and silencing criticism.

At the dedication of the Masonic Temple in this city a large majority of the different lodges and masonic bodies in the line of march were so clothed and uniformed as to make a fine appearance. This was particularly true of the Knights Templar, whose splendid uniforms and unrivalled evolutions astonished even skeptical New York, and influenced many intelligent and desirable men to join an Order that they had previously hardly known of.

A brief examination will satisfy any member that this is the most authentic and complete work of the kind ever published.

"Your 'AHIMAN REZON' was exhibited in our ☐ last night, and evoked the highest praise and warmest approval of the Past Masters and Brethren. We consider it an 'advanced' work, and superior in matter and style to any yet issued."

N. L. F. BACHMAN, Sec. of Schoharie Valley ☐ and Att'y-at-Law, Schoharie, N. Y.

GRAND LODGE OF UTAH, March 10th, 1885.

The STANDARD AHIMAN REZON is one of the very best books of the kind I have ever seen, and I shall make it a point to introduce it in our Jurisdiction. It contains a large amount of practical and important information, and will be an excellent guide for the Masonic Student. No member should be without one.

CHRISTOPHER DHIEL, Grand Secretary.

☞ Special rates given to Agents and Clubs.

WATERFORD, CT., January 19, 1885.

MESSRS. REDDING & CO.

I ordered and received a copy of your "AHIMAN REZON," and I find that it comprises more important information than any other work of the kind I ever saw. It should be in the hands of every M. M.

Yours very truly,

OWEN C. WILLIAMS, Past Master of Union ☐, New London, Ct.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AKIN'S MANUAL.

"To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Georgia:

"We, the Committee appointed to examine the Manual and Digest prepared by Brother John Akin, have performed that duty, and heartily indorse the work as having been well and carefully prepared, and we recommend its adoption by this Grand Lodge."

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,
MACON, GA., Dec. 3, 1894.

This is to certify that the above is a true copy of the transactions of the Grand Lodge of Georgia, as of record in my office, and that the same was unanimously adopted.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Grand Lodge, the day and year first above written.

{ Grand Lodge } [Signed] A. M. WOLLIHIN,
{ Seal. } Grand Secretary, F. & A. M.

Indorsed and recommended by the Grand Master and the entire Committee.

We invite examination, which will satisfy any member that this work is an absolute necessity.

Can be adapted to any jurisdiction.
